

The 2019 COMPETITION

On the occasion of the sixth international show of quilting and textile arts ,tThe association « Histoire de Boites a Couture » organizes a competition on the theme

THE OLIVE TREE

The iconic tree of the mediterranean

(deadline 30 april 2019)

+

Your work should represent « the Olive Tree – the iconic tree of Provence

From Greek mythology to the Genesis from the Coran to the Jewish faith, the olive tree is the only tree which combines both religious and spiritual values and has pervaded landscapes for hundreds and thousands of years so that it has become a tree of life. It is the symbol of peace , love, faithfulness, strength and victory. It is the immortal and nourishing symbols of the peoples of the South

You will give your own interpretation off this iconic tree of the mediterranean world – the unique link between the lands of legends , mankind and the divine

You may use any technique –contemporary,traditional or textile art

- Dimension : 60 centimetres square
- There will be a preselection of photos on April 30th . You should at least send a photo of the whole quilt + one or several photos of details or send a CD of high quality. The definition should be 300DPI at least. These photos should have your first name and name, title of the work . You must also indicate which is the right way to look at your work. All this must be sent by email and the object of the mail should say THE OLIVE TREE + your name
- Entries must arrive by May 10th 2019

- The works have to be original works and should never have been selected before
- The work may be collective or individual
- The works must have an 8 cm wide hanging sleeve divided into three pieces attached at 2 cm of the edge of the quilt
- A label must also be attached to the back and bear the name , first name and adress of the quilter + the date and title of the work

Anyone can enter the competition except the members of the jury and their families

- The catalogue and publication of the photos remain the property of the organizer whether your quilt is selected or not
- By sending the photos the participants agree to their use by the press for advertising purposes or to be published on the Internet.
- The artistic rights remain the artist's property
- The shipping fees will be paid by each participants . Further details will e given after the first selection

If for any reason, independant of the will of the association « histoires de boites a couture », the competition has to be cancelled the participants agree not to sue the association « histoires de boites a couture »

Association « Histoires de boites à couture »
Mas des Léonides Belle Etoile
Chemin des Micoulettes
84760 Saint Martin de la Brasque - France Tel : +33(0)4 90 07 70 98, email: aeluberon@gmail.com

Application form to the Competition

Competition : « THE OLIVE TREE,
THE ICONIC TREE OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

To be sent with the photos to the following address

Association « Histoires de boites à couture »
Mas des Léonides
Belle Etoile
243, Chemin des Micoulettes
84760 Saint Martin de la Brasque – France

Name (in block capital letters)

First name

Address

Zip/postal code

Country

Téléphone

Email

Title of the work

Description and comments

To enclose

Photos : As many photos of the whole work or details as you wish for the right understanding of your work (Name, title of the work, size have to be mentioned at the back of each photo, a numeric format may be considered as follows : name , title of the work_ number of the photo. A self addressed stamped envelope must be enclosed and you must give a valid email address

Having read the general conditions mentioned page one of this form , I enter this work to the competition of the 2019 edition of "Aigu'illes en Luberon

Date and signature after mentioning « lu et approuvé » (I have read and agree)